DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment dated 12/23/2010 have been considered and entered for the record. The amendment overcomes the previous rejections which are hereby withdrawn. New rejections are made below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 1771

5. Claims 1, 2, 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bergeron (US 3,652,414) in view of Nakatani et al. (US 2003/0176298)

6. In regards to claims 1, 2, 7, Bergeron teaches a grease composition comprising a base lubricating agent such as mineral oil in amount of from 4 to 92.5 % by weight, solids which can comprise copper alone in amounts of from 5 to 90% by weight and thickener such as calcium complex soap (column 2 lines 5 – 21). The copper particles meet the limitation of component c) of the claim as evidenced by applicants' specification [Application; 0042]. The mineral oil has a viscosity of from about 100 to 500 SUS at 100°F, which is equivalent to 21 to 108 cSt at 37.7°C (approx 40°C) which meets the limitation in claim 7. Bergeron does not particularly recite calcium sulfonate thickener.

Nakatani teaches grease composition comprising calcium sulfonate complex thickener (abstract). The thickener is a complex of calcium sulfonate and calcium carbonate according to the limitation of claim 2 [0050]. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have used the calcium sulfonates complexes of Nakatani as thickeners in the composition of Bergeron, as Bergeron teaches the thickeners are calcium complex soaps.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicants' arguments have been fully considered but they are moot in view of new rejections.

Art Unit: 1771

8. The applicants have amended the claims to require buffer particles have a size of from 100 to 200 $\mu$ m which Aoki does not recite, thus overcoming the rejections. All rejections over Aoki are withdrawn and new rejections have been made. Therefore the arguments in the Rule 132 Declaration by Kouji Kitahata dated 12/23/2010 are mooted.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

10. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claim 4 requires buffer particles having a size of from 100 to 200 $\mu$ m which Bergeron does not teach.

Conclusion

11. Applicants' amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 1771

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
